Bellevue, Wash - NORCOM (North East King County Regional Public Safety Communications Agency) has scheduled a ceremony to honor award recipients on Friday, April 8, 2011 at approximately 9:30 am. The event will take place at Bellevue City Hall, Room 1E-112 (450 110th Ave NE).

Semi-Annual Excellence Award winners are nominated by their peers and selected by Executive Director Chris Fischer. Award recipients are:

- Telecommunicator Jeremy Henshaw
- Telecommunicator Mike Prill
- Telecommunicator/Communications Training Officer Becky McCracken
- Member of the Technical Team Sandi Clark
- Administrative Clerk – HR Heather Facer

King County Public Health - Emergency Medical Services will recognize 2 NORCOM employees for Emergency Medical Dispatcher of the Year. Award Recipients are:

- Telecommunicator Roky Louie – Sustained Exemplary Performance
- Telecommunicator Josh Baker – Critical Incident (infant CPR)

“NORCOM employees exhibit a high level of professionalism and excellence in the work they do on a daily basis. We are proud to recognize this group of individuals for their contribution to NORCOM’s outstanding service to the public and to our customer agencies” stated NORCOM Executive Director, Chris Fischer.

NORCOM began operation on July 1, 2009 providing professional and efficient answering of 911 phone calls and dispatching police, fire, and emergency medical services for 14 fire agencies and 5 police agencies.
